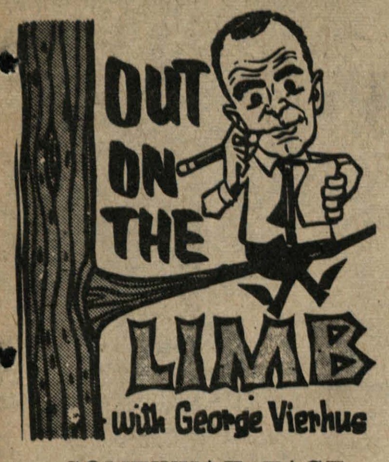
Vol. 73 No. 51 Wednesday, December 22, 1965



SOMEWHAT FACETIOUSLY last week we suggested that picking the worst intersection in town could be developed into a contest.

In 25 words or less a person would complete the sentence "I think BLANK-BLANK intersection should be considered the worst in town because........"

We mentioned that no profanity would be allowed.

We've naturally had a number of comments on this rather painful subject which appears to be near and dear(?) to the hearts of many who travel the streets.

And doesn't everyone?

Despite our cautionary note about no profanity, one of our readers misunderstood the "BLANK-BLANK" part of the above sentence. He filled in the blanks in his own style, on a sort of blankity-blank basis, one might say.

We had nominated Campbell-Bascom as our number one choice as the worst intersection in town. Many people apparently agreed with us.

Even Police Chief John Morgan conceded that our pet peeve should be pretty high on any list. But John had a couple of others in mind also that would be in the running for top (or is it bottom) honor.

OBVIOUSLY the Rincon-Winchester intersection will also get a lot of votes.

This was indicated at the City Council meeting when the issue Winchester was up to bat.

The traffic survey taken by City Engineer Bill Wren's crew showed that Rincon is not carrying an extra heavy traffic load and the average waiting period at Winchester is not excessively long.

But proponents for a signal at that crossroads maintain that it is still needed to alleviate the hazardous traffic conditions that exist.

We agree that getting across Winchester or making a left turn onto the street at the peak traffic period is for the birds, but definitely not for people or cars.

BUT WE ARE NOT too sure that a traffic signal there is going to make everything all sweetness and light either.

The signal would have to be synchronized with Campbell Ave. It was explained that such a signal could conceivably make the waiting

Traffic flow on Winchester concerns planners in approving new buildings

Plans for three new business buildings on S. Winchester Blvd. in Campbell received the blessing of the Planning Commission Monday night.

In approving the plans, the commissioners endorsed the strong argument presented by Bill Wren, acting city engineer. Wren maintained that any additional accesses onto Winchester other than the side streets that exist now would complicate the traffic flow of the main thoroughfare.

Wren made his point during the discussion

Gas stations could "mar" final council meeting Monday night

Campbell's City Council will meet for the last time in 1965 next Monday, Dec. 27. Only one sour note may mar the otherwise spirit of good-fellowship of the season that generally prevails at this season of the year.

That will be action on the long-awaited, much-discussed and much maligned so-called gas station control ordinance.

Scheduled for second reading (final adoption) is the ordinance regulating outdoor business activities. Basically it specifies that service stations in the future can only be located at intersections of two four-lane streets or in shopping centers.

Council members in past meetings have indicated divided opinions on the subject. Whether three affirmative votes can be mustered is problematical.

Santa comes to town--- in a variety of ways

Santa Claus, that elderly gentleman in the red suit and white beard has for many, many years gladdened the hearts of little ones during the Christmas season.

He is depicted in all sorts of poses throughout the residential areas of the town this year as the adjoining pictures testify.

The photos give mute testimony to the unslakening popularity of the bearded gent, even in the jet age in which we are living.

Two of the pictures on the left below show the old boy in probably his most frequent pose in town. . . on the roof ready to go down the fireplace chimney. He is also on the front lawn in another posture, apparently waiting to go up to the roof.

He also appears on walls and on garage doors, as shown below. In fact the old boy gets around--period.

It just all goes to show that the old gentleman does not seem to be losing any of his popularity and is, as usual, at this time of the year, the man-of-the-hour.

WISE MEN STILL SEEK CHRIST
CHRISTMAS DAY

Traditionally The Campbell Press calls upon a local clergyman to present a Christmas message in the issue that appears during Christmas week.

This year the message is by the Rev. W. H. (Ben) Gould, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Campbell.

The Rev. Gould came to the Campbell church in January, 1961 after serving six years as superintendent of the Shasta District. He also had been pastor of the Trinity Methodist Church in Chico, Calif.

REV. W. H. GOULD

Christmas 1965

Christmas is something of a miracle. We commemorate the anniversary of the birth of Christ. He left no physical monuments to any work He had done. He did not write a book, but has been the inspiration of thousands over the years. He won no battles, yet in the hearts of men was born the desire to unite all mankind into a brotherhood. He knew no class distinction, for all were called to love one another as He loved. He was the greatest of teachers, yet never had a school of his own. He was a great physician, but had no office or special patients. We remember the incomparable Christ of God and pause to worship and follow Him in these days.

Christmas Season is a time to be happy and this is evident in all of our lives. The atmosphere surrounding us is one that suggests it is different than any other time of the year. Our decorated world with its tinsel, bells, and ornaments herald the message of Christ. Stores, streets, homes, schools, churches, and other institutions remind us that it is Christmas-time once again--and this is good.

Everywhere we go there is a "song in the air". Our hospitals, convalescent homes, prisons, agencies of love--everyone catches the spirit. The laughter of children, the exhuberance of youth, the smiles on the faces of adults, the cheery hello to friend, acquaintance, and stranger make us realize Christmas makes a difference in our lives.

There is also a somber tone this Christmas time for much of our world is going through the cauldron of hell. The peaceful notes of the Christmas Carols do not float over the air, but the sounds of war dominate the atmosphere. Our President speaks of an era of peace, and tho' not in a declared state of war, ours is a nation that finds thousands of our youth fighting an active war. Other thousands at strategic points in the world preparing and waiting for the unknown to happen, nations poised and ready for war--amid all this we wonder if it will take a thermo-nuclear war for mankind to realize the "hell-bomb" and, all war must be done away with!

It will not be easy to keep the spirit of Christmas alive in a world obscured by hate. At Christmas we have hope for a better world, and we remember our duties to God and our fellow man more than at any other time of the year.

This Christmas let us be mindful of our youth serving our country and think of their anxious loved ones here at home. Let us think of the youth of the world and pray that the way of Christ will prevail in the hearts of all mankind.

Christmas comes to remind us that we are children of God. Let us pray, then, this Christmas that strength, courage, and understanding be given to those who would build a world of brotherhood. Let us ask God for wisdom to see and magnify that which unites us one to another and an ability to surmount that which divides us. Thus praying, let us so live every day of our lives.

Keep Christmas alive in your heart and there will come to you the precious things of life. As you keep Christmas alive in your lives, we pray that you may have the gladness of Christmas which is hope, the spirit of Christmas which is peace, and the experience of Christmas which is love.

SO A LIFE-LONG MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ONE AND ALL!

Annexation war ends

Annexation wars within the county apparently are a thing of the past, we are happy to report.

But there will be old wounds that may never be healed.

Yet at this Christmas season in 1965 sweetness and light must predominate, so we all should be forgiving.

But we cannot help but reflect that it is sad that the means to end the gruesome annexation wars of the past years had not been found sooner, say ten years ago.

The formation under state legislation of the Local Agency Formation Commission has been the instrument that has put the end to the battle of boundaries that for a period of time made a shambles of common-sense lines between cities.

With San Jose leading the way on the annexation front, other cities were forced to follow suit or be swallowed up. Consequently it was dog eat dog and, as is the case in most dog fights, the bigger dog generally came out on top.

Don't get us wrong. We are pleased with the recent announcement made by Milpitas City Councilman Richard Taylor, chairman of the commission, that all that remains in the great annexation wars of a few years back is the cleaning up of the battlefields.

But because, as a war correspondent who has been close to the boundary firing line, we are going to have a hard time forgetting some of the damage that was done when the battle was waging.

The Local Agency Formation District must now approve proposed annexations. In each instance the cities and special districts must present their case before the commission, preceded by public notification of the proposed annexation.

Recently the commission met with representatives of the county's cities and special districts in an afternoon workshop session to lay guidelines on annexations of inhabited areas, boundary agreements and possible realignment of city boundaries.

The commission has also urged that cities and special districts to complete their boundary agreements with each other and also establish a plan to straighten out some city boundaries.

In most cases, under the new deal, the various cities have agreed upon their future boundaries and their so-called "spheres of influence." Whether anything can be done about straightening out the present boundaries

But it will be a big job to undo the damage that was done before the advent of the Local Formation Agency Commission.

San Jose has been blamed for upsetting the status quo by annexing just to be annexing during those years of warfare.

It is interesting to note, however, that even with the new concept, San Jose during the 12 months ending Oct. 31 still led the way with 2,975 acres going into that city via annexations.

But these annexations were accomplished with a minimum of moans and groans on the part of other cities, a far cry from what it used to be.

San Jose submitted 98 proposals and 90 were approved.

Morgan Hill ranked second with 1,186 acres, with Gilroy third with 736 acres.

Two cities, Alviso and Monte Sereno, were the only cities to show no attempts at annexations.

Campbell picked up 47.6 acres; Los Gatos, 28.2 acres; Saratoga, 4.7 acres and Santa Clara, 142.3 acres.

Others included:

Palo Alto, 275.9 acres; Mountain View, 212 acres; Sunnyvale, 146.8 acres; Cupertino, 179.9 acres and Los Altos Hills, 17.4 acres.

period on Rincon longer than it is now.

The City Council is going to research the problem thoroughly before making a decision, an unenviable position in any light.

But traffic signals, we assure you, are not always the cure-all for intersection ills.

How about Campbell-Bascom or Hamilton-Winchester or even little old Central and Campbell.

THESE MARATHON city council sessions lasting until the wee hours in the morning are wearing and wearying to all concerned (including the poor old newspaper editor what covers 'em).

Campbell's council has had more than its share of its lengthy meetings.

After midnight at the last session, Mayor Charles Rose praised Councilman Homer Hyde, who was suffering through his first long council session. Charlie commended Homer for being so wide-awake at that hour.

"AFTER TAKING A SIP of this coffee," Homer groaned "you would either be wide-awake or dead."

City Manager Bob Stephens, it turned out, had made that batch of coffee. It was his first effort in that particular field and he wasn't sure of his ground. His ration of coffee to water was 'way off, he sadly learned.

In a nice way it was suggested that Bob stick to city managing and leave the coffee-making to someone else.

But the councilmen did stay awake.

THE CAMPBELL PRESS was involved recently indirectly and quite innocently in one of those acts by a person with a perverted sense of humor.

Some joker, to use the term loosely, called a high school teacher at home. The caller said he was from The Campbell Press and wanted information on a subject in which the teacher specialized.

The teacher apparently was reasonably courteous. He even answered a few questions which is much more than we would have done under similar circumstances. We would have been furious.

The call was made at 5:30 a.m. on a Sunday!

The teacher belatedly realized it was a hoax but reported it to us anyway.

Frankly we don't know what we would have done in the teacher's situation. Other, that is, than hoping we would have wrecked the caller's eardrums when we slammed down the receiver.

BUT THIS IS the season to keep one's temper in check.. so.. on that note. ---

From all of us here at The Campbell Press to all of you a MERRY CHRISTMAS.

over the plans for a drive-in restaurant on property owned by Bill Oltmann at 2275 Winchester Blvd. (northwest corner of El Caminito and Winchester)

Representatives of Coldwell Banker Inc., the firm handling the leasing of the property and the operator of the proposed drive-in had protested the recommendation of the "S" committee and staff that no driveway openings be allowed on Winchester.

The applicants desired that a driveway off of Winchester be allowed for entry. They claimed that it would not interfere with the traffic flow. They also maintained that it would be a discriminatory action to deprive them of this driveway. Service stations on the street had such driveways, they said.

Wren pointed out that the proposed driveway was only 20 feet away from the side street which, he predicted, would be signalized eventually.

The commission agreed with Wren and approved the plans without a driveway on Winchester.

Approval also was given the plans for a cocktail lounge at Sunnyside and Winchester for O. L. and P. B. Tunstall. Conditions in this case also restrict entry to the property only from Sunnyside and not on Winchester.

Approval was also granted Conrad Stieber, the architect for the proposed "car care center" of Mike Murotsune at 2250 Winchester Blvd. next to the proposed Tunstall lounge. In this case, however, an undedicated alley (Goodyear) would be used as the access to the property.

Commissioner Jim Tomlinson, in voting against approval of the plans for the automobile center, maintained it was not consistent to allow entry on the alley in this case and deny the driveway in the other instance.

Richard Hogan, planning director, explained that the situations were not similar because the proposed car care center was in the center of the block.

In other actions, the commission:

--SET Monday, Jan. 3, as the hearing date for the proposed downtown plan project which would encompass areas on both sides of Campbell Ave. from Latimer to Rincon.

--APPROVED two signs..one for Lee's Drugs at 1586 Winchester Blvd., and the other for Kamper Kits at 166 Kennedy.

--APPROVED the remodeling plans for Bill Hedley for the old Campbell Water Co. building at 346 E. Campbell.

--GRANTED a six-month extension (the final one) stipulating it would be plans for the Valley Ridge Development Co., for 24 unit apartment complex of 625 Nido and 172 Echo.

--APPROVED a variance that would allow a house to be moved from 910 McGlincey Lane to 251 Grant St.

--DENIED the application of Elmo Lowder for approval of a 4x8 wooden sign at Kennedy and Winchester because it did not meet the conditions of the ordinance.

--APPROVED plans for a new saw shed to replace an old one at Campbell Lumber Co.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Some years ago, within the heart of a great nation, a cancer spread. The cancer conquered. The nation died. The Cancer was complacency. The nation was Rome.

Within a millennium, across a nation a great snail crawled. The snail grew. The nation died. The snail was complacency. The nation was Germany.

Last week the lights of truth in the heart of a nation dimmed further. The darkness gathered. The nation died a little. The light is truth and justice. The nation is Selma.

Because the Christmas tree is a potential fire hazard, place it carefully in the room so that it will not block exit ways. Check the light strands on the tree to make sure that they are still in good condition. Make sure this holiday season is a happy one for you and your family."

The scenes depicted in the front yard and on the roof of the Tony Brunetti residence, 481 Carlyn at Hamilton (above) have been rated as one of the outstanding Christmas yard decorations in the area. As electric trains are Brunetti's hobby, he made a special express for the front lawn and he also made a manger scene. Then, of course, there is Santa on the roof. The display, situated across from Rosemary School, has attracted hordes of visitors during the Christmas season.

Local residents who want to help the people of Viet Nam at Christmastime can do so through the services of Project ACTT (America's Trains and Trucks) which has a Campbell headquarters at 259 E. Campbell Ave.

The headquarters can be contacted before Thursday, Dec. 23, from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Henry Scherling, Fairchild Semiconductor Division Technician is using his vacation period and half-time off from his company to head the ACCT drive in the county.

Scherling explains that the people of Viet Nam need such items as sewing kits, bolts of light colored cotton, towels, crayons, rulers, combs, rope, nails and screws. "If you have, or know where to get such items," he appeals, "please call 378-8081."

The local campaign is part of the nationwide drive for 100 train carloads of supplies for the people of South Viet Nam.

The campaign has received the support of national and state leaders, although the Santa Clara County Young Democrats have refused to endorse the project.

Marine reservists, 450 using 12 trucks, are scheduled to collect tools, medical supplies, food and clothing, according to Scherling. The department of defense is expected to arrange for the shipping of the donations to South Viet Nam.

The train with more than 100 cars is scheduled to arrive on the West Coast before Christmas.

Lumber company burglarized

An undetermined amount of money was stolen from the Campbell Lumber Company in a burglary that was discovered by a Campbell police officer on duty in the area early Monday morning.

Don Witzell, manager, reported the fire safe had been moved and broken into and papers scattered about, but there was no money in the safe. The cigarette machine and cash register were also burglarized, and the amount of money missing undetermined immediately.

Entry was made by breaking a small glass window in the rear of the building. The burglar apparently cut his hand as drops of blood were found on the window sill and on the floor.

Jaycettes bring joy to nursing home

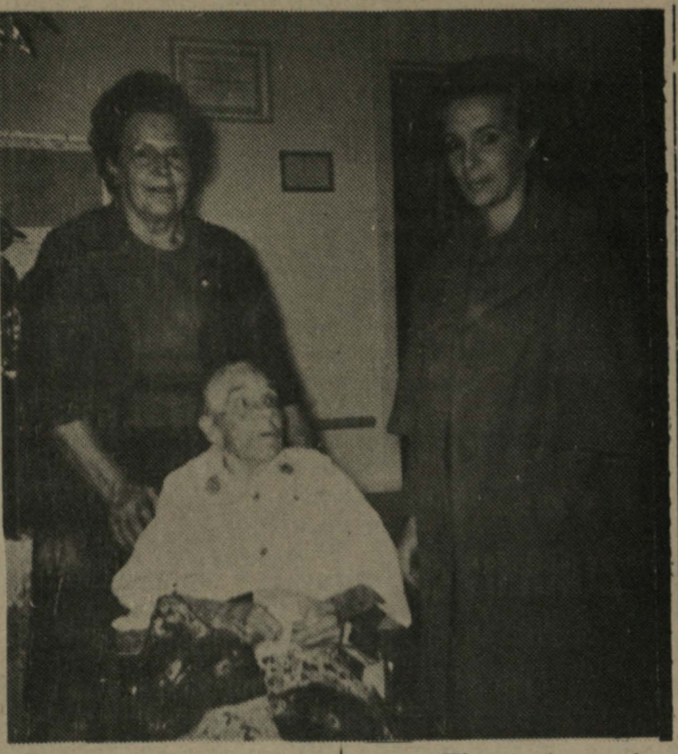
The patients at the Shady Acres Nursing Home at 531 N. Central Ave., Campbell, will not be forgotten this Christmas season, if the Campbell Jaycettes and Jaycees have their way. Each patient will receive their own Christmas tree decorated by the Jaycettes.

Robert Dalzell, vice president of the Campbell Jaycees, will play Santa Claus and place the gifts, made by different donors, under each patient's tree. There will be Christmas Carols and refreshments served to the patients.

One of the residents of the Nursing Home, Mrs. Hanna Waite, known as Abby to her friends and family, was chosen to be taken on an ambulance tour of the city to see the Christmas decorations. She will also visit the First Methodist Church and be greeted by Rev. William H. Gould.

Mrs. Waite has been a resident of San Jose for nearly 40 years. She has been a patient at the Shady Acres Nursing Home for the last two years and unable to get out.

Bigley's Ambulance Co. of Campbell and San Jose, donated the time and ambulance for Mrs. Waite's tour of the city. Mrs. James Pluth, Jaycette president, will act as guide and host for the evening.



NURSING HOME PATIENTS REMEMBERED - Mrs. Hanna Waite, a patient at the Shady Acres Nursing Home in Campbell is readied for a trip (via ambulance) to see the holiday decorations and Christmas lights in the area. The trip and a Christmas party was the project of the Campbell Jaycettes. Mrs. B. The Spirit of Christmas

As the church bells chime on Christmas Morn, stop to think of their message . . . "Peace on Earth Good Will Towards Men." We stop now to thank you for your patronage during the year.

CAMPBELL LUMBER CO
743 CAMDEN AVENUE 378-3427

Grass Roots

A fragrant, green Christmas tree, planted in a public spot, is more than just a tree. It is a living symbol of community spirit. The town square, neighborhood shopping center or community center that boasts one gains a feeling of warmth and stability that can't be valued in dollars and cents.

Libraries, hospitals, churches and schools--even bus stations or airports--are all lovelier and more welcoming for the addition of a bushy living conifer, no matter what it's size.

In one California community there is a small green island in the center of town, consisting of a magnificent silvery-green Deodar Cedar, underplanted with spreading juniper.

The local garden club keeps it fresh and colorful all year by planting seasonal flowers all along the edge, yellow daffodils in the spring, followed by white petunias, then bright chrysanthemums in the fall. Christmas always seems to begin in this town on the day the lights are strung on the tree. And it isn't just the children who enjoy the sight.

But smaller living Christmas trees have plenty of impact too. Where there isn't any planting area or only a small square of earth, you can get an enchanting effect with a small white fir in a container or a slow-growing Koster's Spruce in a planting square in the ground.

Right now there is a large selection of living Christmas trees available for planting. Several of them, along with their decorations, are listed below.

SPRUCES: Thanks to it's slow-growing habit, symmetrical form and beautifully colored foliage, the Colorado Spruce is one of the top favorites as a Christmas tree.

FIRS: The White Fir is the most popular Christmas tree in this family. It's a symmetrical tree with a moderate growth rate and green to blue-green needles. It prefers cool, moist climates.

CEDARS: The Deodar Cedar, sometimes called the California Christmas tree, is a fine choice where you have plenty of room for it to grow upwards and outwards. Rich, silvery gray-green foliage, wide spreading, arching branches and a pyramidal shape make it popular.

Girl scouts

Cadette troop 561 has been scouting around for news in Neighborhood 18. "Troop Tribune" is the name of their monthly publication that they produce from start to finish by the girls. They gather news, write stories, jokes, recipes and Council information. The "Troop Tribune" is distributed to the leaders of scout troops each month so every one knows what is going on in their own area.

Have no fear, Cadette Troop 3 is here, taking judo lessons--that's right, but it is the defensive kind only. No offensive training is being given, so no offence taken.

Cadette Troop 3 had a special reason for selling Christmas wreaths this year. The girls are earning money to take a trip to Sacramento in conjunction with the Citizenship badge and their school work. Other 8th grade Girl Scouts in Neighborhood 18 are also earning money to take the trip.

Brownie Troop 204 from Marshall Lane school made tray favors for the patients at Westmorland Convalescent Hospital during their meeting Tuesday, Dec. 14th. The Brownies delivered the favors the same day, and sang Christmas Carols to the patients. Mrs. Edward Walters is the troop's leader, Dec. 14 Brownie and Mrs. Fred Ryalls co-leader.

Troop 273 from Strawberry Park held an Investiture and had 100% turnout of girls and parents. Brownie Troop 764 also held their Investiture Dec. ~~18.~~

Junior Troop 50 of Strawberry Park are taking skating lessons and have also made Christmas cards for the Elderly ladies at the Villa of Our Lady of Fatima in Los Gatos. They will join Cadette troop 507 and go caroling at the Villa to bring a sparkle to these women, some of whom have no family and hear so seldom from anyone.

The Cadette Troop 507 have sent 10 pounds of decorations and 25 pounds of cookies to James Satcher, Specialist 4th class in Viet Nam. Jim is at a hospital and had asked for some lights to decorate a tree.

MERRY CHRISTMAS everyone from all Scouts--everywhere.

UNIQUE AWARD--Lou Marotti, varsity line coach at Camden High, was pleasantly surprised recently when members of the football squad presented a plaque to him in assembly. The award which will be known as the "Lou Marotti plaque for the most aggressive varsity football player" has space for the name of the football player who will be chosen annually for the honor. Sisto Arena, shown with Coach Marotti, a halfback on the varsity was the winner of the award this year.

Chuck Hawthorne wins top Frosh-Soph award for league

Chuck Hawthorne, the speedy quarterback who piloted Campbell to a championship, has been voted most valuable back on the West Valley Athletic League's Frosh-Soph team.

The all-league team was elected at a recent meeting of coaches.

Don Transeth of runner-up Del Mar was voted the most valuable lineman.

Coaches took into consideration that it was the brilliant running and passing of Hawthorne that pulled the little Buccaneers through to a 7-win 0-loss season.

In all of Campbell's final five games the Bucs came from behind, the most spectacular recovery being against Camden, when trailing, 19-0, midway in the third period, Hawthorne contributed two punt returns for touchdowns that fashioned a 20-19 win. In another thriller, the Buccaneers spotted Saratoga, a two-touchdown, half-time lead and won, 14-13.

On the defensive and offensive units, Campbell placed five players. Second-place Del Mar grabbed four spots, three went to Saratoga, Blackford and Leigh, Los Gatos and Westmont had two each and Camden one.

Sophomores dominated 21 out of 23 first unit picks. The freshmen to break into the selections were Leigh's Dave Edle, a back, and Del Mar lineman, Loren Toews.

Six students win contest

Fire Chief George Maxwell has announced the results of the annual Campbell High School, Fire Prevention Poster and Essay Contest. The contest is conducted each year in conjunction with Fire Prevention Week activities. Trophies were presented to the three most outstanding entries in each field. Assisting Chief Maxwell with the presentation were James Hardy, president of the Chamber of Commerce, James Duffield, Chamber of Commerce secretary-manager and Captain Lee Neal of the Campbell Fire Department.

This years contest winners were Sondra Wheeler, George Akina and Cathy McLain (Essay Contest) and Sharon Poisson, Bob Bryant and Kay Pruvich (Poster Contest) Judging of these contests have become increasingly more difficult because of the competition involved. All of the entries this year were of the highest caliber and the Fire Department wishes to extend congratulations to all of the students who took time out of their regular school activities to participate in the contest.

The Campbell Business and Professional Woman's Club and the Adult Education Art Class were this year's judges.

An interesting note was brought out by Robert Culp, principal of Campbell High School. It seems that while attending Sunnyvale Grammar School, Miss Susan Sleek the new art teacher at the high school, entered their local Fire Prevention Contest and won first place. The Fire Department is happy to see that the students at Campbell High School have carried on in her behalf.

NEW CHIEF OF STAFF - Dr. Robert MacLean, Los Gatos physician, has been appointed chief of staff of the Community Hospital of Los Gatos-Saratoga on Pollard Road, succeeding Dr. Allen McGrath.

Winners of the $5 prizes in the candy sales competition have been announced. They are Francis Acken, Sue McKay, Cathy Hughes, Emmett Lucero, Dianne Rhode, and Steve McCurty.

After so much talk about this year's A Cappella Choir, I thought you might be interested in knowing exactly who is in our choir.

Kathleen Sowers, Linda Squires, Karen Stephenson, Roy Stone, Catherine Tawil, Don Thomas, Marla Tremper, Kathy Tucker, Mike Weber, Sondra Wheeler, Sheila Willmes, Don Womack, Andy Youngstrom, and Pam Tokunage, secretary.

Last Wednesday night Campbell held its annual Christmas Program. After several choir and orchestra numbers, John Hall's drama students presented "Our Miss Brooks and the Christmas Carol." The presentation was outstanding with Linda Fouts playing Miss Brooks, and Roger Volk portraying Hugo. Others in the play were Thurma Falkowski, Kay Purvich, Roger Langford, Ed Northup, Walt Ritter, Gwen Davis, Charlene Munger, Linda Squires, and Phyllis Egbert. Also hilarious as Mr. Wadsworth, the principal, was Dennis Smith.

Offices open

William H. Hedley, Jr., architect, will open professional offices in the former location of the Campbell Water Co. at 346 E. Campbell Ave. about Jan. 15. A graduate of the University of Illinois, Hedley designed the new Campbell Water Co. building. He also worked on the Watsonville City Hall, the Hillview Branch of the County Library and is presently involved with plans for the new Municipal Court in Sunnyvale.

The old Water Co. structure will have a new exterior of natural redwood, according to Hedley, who said he hoped to move in by the middle of next month.

On Friday, Campbell students were treated to hour long assemblies to end the last week of school before Christmas gloriously. The assemblies were comprised of excerpts from the Christmas Program and were well received by the students.

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND HAPPY NEW YEAR!

WARRIOR WAYS

WESTMONTS STUDENT COUNCIL tossed around the idea of which quote to have inscribed on the presidential plaque. The first quote was, "A great leader will leave, in those who follow after him, the will to carry on," but the majority wanted to use the quote by Upton Sinclair, "An organization might not have a great leader and still not be a great organization, but if it does not have a great leader it can never be a great organization." The latter was finally decided upon.

On the calender scene at Westmont for the next two months we have: a Sock Hop to be held in the cafetorium and sponsored by the Debs on Jan. 14.

The Deb Ball is to be held on Jan. 22. A proposed fashion show on Feb. 2 will be sponsored by Dean Dorothy Shronk.

WARRIOR OF THE WEEK
GARY PORTER

Gary is Westmont's Block W vice-president, and captain of the varsity basketball team.

Gary was born right here in Santa Clara County, and has lived here all of his life.

With an older brother and a father who play basketball Gary just could not help but become interested in the sport.

His other favorites include baseball, hunting and fishing.

His favorite subject is math, and Gary wants to become an Aeronautical Engineer.

mont and the staff are great, but he would like to see more student participation at athletic games.

Gary maintains a B plus average and this past summer attended a conference for Fellowship of Christian Athletics in Ashland, Oregon, along with Gary Paske from Campbell High. The boys were sponsored by the Campbell Kiwanis Club.

Westmont wishes everyone a very Merry Christmas Holiday!
